MAN ORDERED TO SERVE 121 MONTHS IN PRISON AND MUST REGISTER AS SEX OFFENDER

United States Attorney Johnny Sutton announced today that 45-year-old Allin Bradley Peebles of Odessa, Texas, was sentenced to 121 months in federal prison, ordered not to have contact with anyone under 17 years-of-age and required to register as a sex offender.

Peebles was arrested at his home in Odessa on August 19, 2003, after FBI agents executed a search warrant based in part on a tip from a person who knew Peebles collected child pornography. The search warrant was executed on his home computer where over 600 images of mostly prepubescent girls (8-10 years old) engaged in explicit sexual acts. While out on a $25,000 bond he fled the jurisdiction. On September 20, 2003, while attempting to cross the border into Canada he was arrested in Sweetgrass, Montana, by an agent with the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement. After being returned to Midland, he pled guilty on October 2, 2003, to the federal charge of Receipt of Child Pornography.

The case was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and was prosecuted for the government by Assistant United States Attorney Mark Roomberg.
